How do we act with Integrity?

To ensure that I prioritise your interests above my own I follow an advice process that ensures recommendations are made based on your individual needs and circumstances (and not based on other factors, such as the amount of commission we may receive). OFS and I do not receive any commission or other incentives for giving Financial Advice. OFS does receive commission when the client accepts our financial advice and purchases an insurance policy. Our advisers are all paid salary, receive no commission and may receive additional income based on my performance. The commission is paid by the Insurer (product provider's) for the insurance business on each insurance policy that the Client purchases. The commission is paid to us can be between the range of 0-30% of the insurer portion (total premium of the Insurance Policy less government levies and taxes).

Payment of the premium, including any associated charges, is due within the credit terms which are shown on our tax invoice(s). OFS may also earn investment income from the handling of premium funds.
